

Project Initiation Document Guideline

Chapter 01- Introduction

- Explain About the problem statement.
- Current Status of the problem statement (Identified Problem).
- Solution that you are suggesting.
- Project outcome with suitable justifications.
E.g.- If it is a mobile app, why is it mobile....

Chapter 02- Business Case

In this chapter you're basically marketing your project in business aspect.

2.1- Business Need

- This explains the importance of having such application/project in selected domain.
- Identify the business need of the selected project domain and explain with proper evidence (Use citations).

2.2- Business Objectives

- This explains the impact which will make to the identified domain from your project.

Chapter 03- Project Objectives

(Selected technologies can be changed later)

- This section should explain the final deliverables of the project individually.
- You must explain about each deliverable with technologies which intended to use with proper justification.
- Discuss about the feasibility of each deliverable.

Chapter 04- Literature Review

- This chapter will explain about the previous work which published by research.
- In this chapter you can review them, summarize them, and constructively criticize them with your findings.
- This chapter can include about the findings which is related to your project and themes you extracted to your project.

Chapter 05- Method of Approach

- In this section it should explain about the work that you have already completed and work that you must do in next immediate interim. This should complete with proper justification.

Chapter 06- Initial Project Plan

- This chapter should explain about the development phases of the identified project.
- In this section you've to come up with valid and suitable time durations for each development phase.
- By December first week you can start the project development.

Chapter 07- Risk Analysis

(Use GitHub coz files can be destroyed, Time Management)

- Identify the potential risks which can occur during project development stage.
- Come up with a proper risk management mechanism for identified risks.

Chapter 08- Any further sections that you wish to add

(Diagrams, High-lvl archi diagrams basically anything you can use for the project.)

References

- Each citation should include under references using Harvard referencing style.